

I-Manifest STUDIO @ MTV

19 students

8 schools

17 cultural back-grounds

25 mentors

after the program...

100%

of students are more confident talking to industry professionals

100%

of students feel their future careers are more within their reach

100%

had a more positive perception of a career in the creative industries

27

new careers were identified by our students

During the workshops, the kids:

- prepared an interview for the '60 Seconds with Yolanda Be Cool' segment published online
- created and filmed News Breaks segments that went live to air
- made their own MTV My5 Playlist aired live on MTV

I think it has become more of a realistic, achievable industry. I thought you had to have begun big to start but that's not always the case
Racquel, Liverpool Girls High School

Networking and doing a bunch of internships and work experience is the best way to get the feel of what you want
Lydia, Seven Hills High School

Talking to the staff and learning about their stories was really interesting
Miguel, South Sydney High School

Through the workshop you definitely become more informed which really helps when choosing your career
Hannah, Liverpool Girls High School

Try new things and work your way up the ladder
Tara, Nepean CAPA High School
